

Fie, Nay, Prithee John

round for three voices

A witty three-part canon by Henry Purcell.
Vocal entries are marked as numbers above the staff.

Henry Purcell

Choir

Piano

1.

Fie, nay, pri-thee John Do not quar-rel man!

A E7 F# C#m7

5

2.

Let's be mer-ry and drink a-bout. You're a rogue, you cheat-ed me! I'll prove be-fore this com-pa ny, I

D A Bm E A A E7 F# C#m7

9

3.

caren't a farth-ing, sir, for all you are so stout! Sir, you lie! I scorn your word or an - y man that wears a sword! For all your huff who cares a damn, and who cares for you?

D A Bm E A A E7

12

F# C#m7 D A Bm E A